

Jobs are available NOW!

Yes, many employers have put hiring plans on hold for the time being. But, hundreds of companies are hiring lots of people!

Here's how to find some of those jobs:

- 1) Go to www.coronavirus.ohio.gov/jobsearch. You can search for jobs near you by clicking on the "Specific Location" button and entering your zip code in the Search file above that. The list of companies hiring in your area will appear below the Search screen. You can click on "Apply" – this will take you to that company's jobs listing, where you can again search for jobs by location or category.
- 2) Check also www.ohiomeansjobs.com . On this site you can search by zip code or job title. You can also use the "Advanced Search" function to refine your search further, for example, by industry or your education level.

- 3) These jobs/industries are "hot" right now, so look into these that may be interest to you:

Retail Store Associates – especially the vital grocery stores	Home Health Aides/Personal Care Aides – to work in healthcare settings or clients' homes
Construction Workers	Delivery Drivers

- 4) These are some local companies doing mass hiring, so check out their jobs when using the websites mentioned above:

Amazon	Lowe's
Kroger	CVS
Walmart	FedEx

As always, Employment For Seniors is here to help! If you need assistance in tailoring your resume to one of these jobs, let us know! We can assist you over the phone with your resume or with a practice interview so you make the right impression to land that job!